9 Days Amadablam Base Camp Trek Itinerary

Day 1: Fly to Lukla - Trek to Phakding

Amadablam Base Camp Trekking begins at Kathmandu. The day begins rather early as you pack your bags and drive to Tribhuvan International Airport. Embark on a domestic flight to Lukla. The scenic half-hour long flight takes you over the pristine forested hills and deep ravines towards Lukla. Upon arrival, you'll enjoy your breakfast and then embark on the first day of the trek. Enjoy a scenic trek along the pristine Dudh Koshi River to Phakding village.

Destination:	Accommodation	Altitude:
35 minutes flight to Lukla - 8km Downhill hike (Avg. 3 hours)	Khumbu Traveler's Guest House or Hotel Sherpa	(2600m./8580ft.)

Meals

Lunch, Dinner

Day 2: Trek to Namche bazaar

Leaving Phakding, you'll begin trekking upstream along the Dudh Koshi River towards Monjo village. You'll walk past few scenic waterfalls en route. At Monjo, you'll get the permit for Sagarmatha National park. The trail continues through Jorsalle and crosses few suspension bridges en route to Namche Bazaar. Namche is the largest village in the entire Everest Region. Enjoy the majestic sight of Kongde Ri range from Namche Bazaar.

Additional Trip Information

When to visit Amadablam Base Camp

The best time to do Amadablam Base Camp Trekking is during the spring and autumn seasons. During this time of the year, you will be able to see the beauty of the surrounding in clear visibility. Furthermore, during this season you will also be able to find proper accommodation for your stay. At this time of the year, the temperature is also moderate. Which will multiply your experience and fun during the trek.

Amadablam Base Camp Trek difficulty

It is always difficult to trek at high altitudes. Similarly, you will face a lot of difficulties. But, the most common of them all is altitude sickness. There are a lot of incidents where people fall victim to this sickness. If this sickness is not treated properly then this can lead to death as well. Similarly, other difficulties that you will face during the trek are its landscape and the remote nature of the trek. So, make sure that you are prepared for that. Similarly, if you travel here during the season you might find it difficult to book a suitable lodge facility. Likewise, during on-season, you might find it challenging to hire capable guides or porters because they might already be hired by other tourists. Furthermore, if you travel here during the off-season then you might find bad weather and climate to trek on. So, you should visit in the spring and autumn seasons to find a suitable climate and the difficulties can be minimized.

Travel insurance

Your travel insurance is the most important thing that you should have on your trekking journey. Amadablam Base Camp Trekking is one of the hardest treks in Nepal. So, you need to have your insurance with you. Furthermore, make sure that your insurance policy is not expired. In addition, make sure that your insurance company has ticked all your trekking-related policies such as rescue missions, medical expenses, and loss of personal equipment. Therefore, if all these things are good then it will be easy for you to go on the trek with us.

Meals and Accommodation

We provide Meals and Accommodation facilities in Kathmandu. Similarly, we also don't provide any soft or hard drinks during the trek. But, we provide. The government and other respective bodies are continuously are trying to facilitate accessible communication, comfortable and safe internal travel, proper healthcare facility, and services of accommodation for tourists.

What are the physical fitness and other health criteria required for this trek

Even though it is a moderate trek, The trail sometimes passes through the steep with climbs and ascents that can be demanding and tiresome, so it is beneficial for all travelers to exercise daily from a month before their trip. This helps the body get accustomed to the physical work required during the journey. Participants with pre-existing medical conditions such as heart, lung, and blood disease should inform us before booking the trek and are advised to seek medical advice or consent from their doctors before the trek.

When is the best season ?

The best season to trek this route is during autumn (September to November) as the weather is stable, dry, and clear. Also, the atmosphere is merry during these seasons, as autumn is the major festive season of the country. Another favorable season for trekking is during spring (March to May) as the trails become more vibrant and pleasing with the blooming of different wildflowers and Rhododendrons. The days are clear and perfect for trekking.

Is Travel Insurance compulsorily required ? Does your company pay for the Travel Insurance of guides and porters?

We do require you to have travel insurance that must cover medical and emergency helicopter rescue with evacuation expenses at 4800m. high altitudes for trekking members while booking a trek with us, just to be on the safe side. You should provide the insurance documents before you depart for the trek.

If you do not or cannot find an appropriate insurance policy, we will assist you with one. It will help you in potential altitude sickness and unforeseen events due to sudden weather changes.

Yes, we do pay for the insurance policy of our team members. Nepal Alternative Treks fund the expenses for insurance of all of its members along with their meals, salary, lodging, transportation, and other necessary equipment.

What is Acute Mountain Sickness? What chances to catch AMS in this route ? What happens if we fall sick?

As you ascend, the atmospheric pressure decreases. Hence, the amount of oxygen available also decreases. When your body is unable to acclimatize adequately to a rapid decrease in oxygen volume, altitude sickness occurs. Its symptoms are nausea, vomiting, headache, lack of appetite, exhaustion, muscle aches, rapid pulse even at rest (+/- 120 beats per minute), and insomnia.

To avoid AMS, our itineraries include acclimatization days in between. You should walk at a slow and steady pace, eat enough carbohydrates, and drink plenty of water. You could eat chocolates and toffee while walking and avoid alcohol and smoking.

You have some chances to get AMS on this trek as the trail ascends above 3000m in general. You may have a very little chance to feel a bit it won't be high risk as you will have enough acclimatization.

Our guides are well-trained to handle emergencies like AMS and other sicknesses. They know how to use an oxygen meter to monitor blood oxygen saturation levels at high altitudes. They can facilitate you with other medical kits (First Aid) and health check-up as per necessity.

If you happen to have symptoms of AMS or the feeling of being sick, you have to report it to your guide immediately. You must not ascend any further, take rest, and take medicines like acetazolamide or Diamox. If symptoms persist, you must descend to a lower altitude and visit a doctor immediately. If the condition seems to worsen, we shall coordinate with your insurance company for helicopter evacuation.

Can we change money along the trek ? Can we pay by credit card or foreign currency ?

Yes, you may be able to change money at Lukla and Namche but the exchange rate will be lower than in Kathmandu. We recommend changing money at Thamel. Credit cards and foreign currency are not accepted along the route. You are better to take enough cash from Kathmandu.

Do you have other dates available that match my timing?

Even though this trekking package has pre-fixed group departure dates, we can tailor it to accommodate your specific requests and schedule. Please review our designated departure dates, and if they do not suit your timeframe, let us know your preferred timing so that we can manage your itinerary accordingly. We organize this trek as per your wishes and convenience.

As a single trekker, may I join fixed departure ? Will it be possible to get a separate room?

This trekking package is designed in such a way that they suit single travelers too. It is a great way to get to know new people with similar interests, and most people find that group dynamics are very friendly and comforting. Single trekkers will share accommodation with other individual trekkers of the same gender on our group journeys.

If you are a single traveler wishing for a private room, we can manage that as well, but you will have to inform us about it while booking the trip. Also, please note that you may have to pay some additional charges for single rooms.

What is the weight limit for porters ? and weight limit for Lukla flight ?

Usually, we arrange one porter for two trekkers, and one porter carries weights up to 20 kilograms. Hence, each trekker's luggage should weigh only up to 10 kilograms. However, if your essentials weigh more than that, we can provide you a personal porter with some additional costs.

You can carry a maximum 10Kg of luggage (two pieces) and a maximum of 5kg of hand-carry. You will have to pay $ 1 around for excess baggage.

What kind of food will be provided during this trek?

Our package includes three meals per day, breakfast, lunch, and dinner. Dinner and lunch include the authentic Nepali Daal-Bhat (rice and lentils) along with seasonal vegetables, spinach, and pickle. If you do not like it, you can choose any item from the wide range of menu offered by the lodges.

Tea houses and lodges serve Nepalese, Asian, and Continental food, and even pizzas. The food is prepared hygienically, but the taste of western food might not meet your expectations as there are minimal resources available. We usually suggest eating vegetarian food to avoid falling ill. We ensure hygienic food and clean kitchen to avoid food poison and enough nutrition and immunity needed for the mountain walk.

How can drinking water be managed in the mountain ?

Bottled plastic water is readily available along route at USD 1 per liter however we recommend you carry your own water bottles. You can fill them up with filtered water or boiled water wherever possible and purify it using chlorine or iodine. We shall provide water purification drops and tablets.

How long will we have to hike each day ?

An average day of trekking involves around 4 to 6 hours of hiking, including breaks for meals as needed. The average distance covered depends on the terrain and altitude, but ranges from 10 to 15 kilometers on average.

Along the way, you will have many chances for photography and other personal interests such as bird watching and discovering local areas of interest like natural springs, hot water ponds, and even exploring flora and fauna.

What are the documents that we need to bring for this trek ?

You need to submit the following documents that should be sent via email :

- A copy of passport,
- Passport-sized photos,
- Flight details,
- Copy of travel insurance (it has to cover Heli rescue and medical evacuation) and other documents required to claim it.

What are the accommodation arrangements during the trek ?

In this trekking, the accommodation options are hotels and lodges . Nepal Alternative Treks generally manages your accommodation in the best available hotels/lodges that provide single or double rooms with bathrooms inside. The bed has a mattress, pillow, and blanket. Most lodges offer a room with a blanket provided by the teahouse alone will not be enough to withstand the cold. So, we provide a warm sleeping bag.

What kind of toilet facilities are there? Will we be able to take a shower in Mountain ?

Hotels/Lodges or teahouses on the trek route have excellent infrastructure and are likely to have western-style toilets, and sometimes even attached toilets. Usually, Nepal Alternative Treks arranges accommodation with proper shower facilities.

Can we hire trekking gears in Kathmandu ?

Yes, You can. There are plenty of shops around Thamel, that sell as well as rent all the necessary gear for trekking. These shops have great varieties of goods ranging based on their brand as well as price. We will help you with buying or hiring all the necessary equipment.

Is it possible to recharge batteries and electronics during the trek ?

Nowadays, all kinds of facilities, including recharging batteries and electronics, are available in this route and also have electricity and recharging facilities available for a minimal service charge.

Also, note that the Nepalese plugs are of Type D, and the voltage is about 220-240 V. So, make sure that your devices are chargeable. Otherwise, you shall require adapters and voltage stabilizers.

Is it possible to communicate with friends and family back home while on trek ?

There are mobile networks, internet data, and Wi-Fi available in the Everest region, and you can connect to your friends and family back home.

For mobile network and internet data, you will require a Nepalese SIM-Card. If you wish to buy a Nepalese SIM-Card, we will assist you in getting it. You can buy a SIM-Card from local distributors easily with some fees. We recommend Namaste SIM and Everest Data package to have better network coverage and 4G data uses.

What if the guide/porter leaves alone on the trail?

Guides and porters will always walk together with you, but, sometimes in case if there is no communication available to reserve lodge in advance, your porter may have to go ahead to book a room in an excellent lodge for the night. Our guides /porters will not leave you behind otherwise.

If by any chance such a circumstance occurs, you have to contact us immediately. We will then connect to our guides/porters and get back to you. We assure you.

What is the weather and temperature like we can expect during the trek?

The temperature could range around and above 25 degrees Celsius in summers and decrease below -10 degrees Celsius in winters. During autumn and spring, temperature ranges around 10 to 20 degrees Celsius, making it suitable for trekking purposes.

Do we need to tip my porter and guide ?

It is not mandatory to tip the porters and guides. It ultimately depends on your choice. As your porter and guide play a big role in the success of your trip, from guiding and carrying your necessities to being mindful of your safety, your tips reflect gratitude towards them. Hence, tipping is a recommended culture for porters and guides in Nepal as a gesture of thankfulness.

Cancellation Policy

We understand that plans can change willy-nilly. However it is our responsibility to ensure fairness and transparency among our customers regarding our cancellation policy. So we kindly request all travelers to carefully review the cancellation and refund policy before confirming their trip.

After your trip starts, we cannot provide a refund for any voluntary withdrawal, cancellation, or early departure by the traveler. This means the full amount paid to us will not be refunded after the trip has begun. Likewise, if during the trip, any services such as accommodation, sightseeing, meals, transportation, etc. included in the itinerary/trip are not used by the customer, no refunds or reuse will be provided to whatever portion remains unused on the trip.

Also, please note that last-minute cancellations are non-refundable. You have to understand that many trip arrangements such as accommodation, transportation, permits, guides, and operational logistics are confirmed and pre-booked. Thus, cancellations made at the last minute create non-recoverable costs for the company and so do for our clients. In addition, cancellations made shortly before the departure date or after the trip has started will be considered as last-minute cancellations and will not be eligible for any refund.

Still, the company will use their discretion in setting the conditions for the refunds, therefore, few of the conditions mentioned are subject to change. The company holds every right to cancel the trips booked by the customers before it is guaranteed to run or an official agreement is signed. A trip is guaranteed to run once it has two fully paid travelers unless minimum numbers state otherwise.

Unfortunate circumstances such as unforeseen natural disaster, canceled flights, strike, industrial action, wars, riots, quarantine, government intervention, weather, the deteriorating health condition of a group member, etc. could lead to cancellation of trips. In such cases, the customer can either ask to get back the 90% of the total trip cost paid to the company (13% Government Tax will be deducted) or reuse the cost in an alternative trip with the same price, immediately, in the following season of the same year.

The company will require a written notice in case of any cancellation. Please ensure the date of the trip cancellation is the date on which the written cancellation is received by the company. If you cancel the trip anytime prior to the departure date of the actual trip, 90% of the total cost is reusable for a year or refund.

Trip Amendment

First and foremost, please note that all the amendment conditions are applied to the trips listed on this site only. Below are a few notes to take about the amendment fees in case of any changes during, while, or after the booking:

If the company receives a request on the booking amendments at least 60 days prior to the trip, a total of USD 50/person is charged to the customer. However, if the customer's request for a booking amendment in less than 60 days before the trip departure, then the charges will be as per the cancellation policy mentioned above. In case of any changes in the price of the trip during the procedure of booking and the amendments, the new cost will be applied to the trips. Please note that these changes might not be applied by the company, but can be levied upon the company by the third parties i.e. the hotels or the service providers working with the company.

Any changes, amendments, or additions in aggregation to the trips you have booked, for example, hotels, transfers, additional days, etc. will account for no additional fee.

Health Conditions

Nepal Alternative Treks places the highest priority on the safety and well-being of all travelers. We need to ensure the traveler's well-being and health condition at the time of booking. While travelers can participate without medical documentation, those with chronic illnesses or long-term medical conditions must obtain a doctor's consent before joining the trip. This is to ensure their health is not badly affected during the adventure and that they can safely enjoy the journey.

The company will not be responsible for any type of mishaps and will not bear the medical and evacuation expenses on behalf of the participant. Therefore, we request our clients to consult their doctors for a thorough checkup and vaccination before booking a trip with us. In addition, clients with specific health needs or concerns should inform the Company in advance. This allows us to provide guidance and, if required, arrange additional services to make the trip safer and more comfortable. If needed, clients may also request additional services related to the length of the trip or stay in the country of travel.

Weather and other unfavorable conditions

Clients should be well aware of the unpredictability of the weather conditions in the mountainous regions. The unfortunate weather conditions, especially in the Everest, Jomsom, and Kanchenjunga regions, can sometimes lead to unfavorable circumstances that include delay or cancellation of flights. The Company will cover the expenses of accommodations and food in the departing location until the arrangement of flights is done. However, the Company holds every right to reroute the original trip or transports which will be in favor of the situation without any addition in the cost. Please note that the company will not be responsible for any missed international flights, losses caused by Altitude Sickness, or any other unpredictable circumstances, and the participants will have to pay all the charges incurred. Nonetheless, the Company will connect and assist you to make the necessary alternative arrangements, but, the additional charge will be covered by the customers themselves.

Regardless of stating every condition and information about the trips on the website and brochures of the Company, we will not be responsible for the unforeseeable situations that may arise before or during the trips. The Company will, however, try its level best to give prior notice about it and take alternate strategies to deal with it. These booking conditions may only be waived in special circumstances, and in writing, by a letter from the Chief of the Company. Note that all the legal agreements set up and signed between the client and the Company shall be subjected to and governed by the Nepalese law.

Note: All the Terms and Conditions mentioned are prepared as per the laws of the Government of Nepal and is governed by them. Therefore, only the head of the Company gets to intervene and holds the authority to make any amendments.
