Nagi Village Trek Overview

Nagi Village trekking is a popular trekking destination in the Annapurna Region of Nepal. Located in the Myagdi region, Nagi village is at an elevation of 2300 meters. Trekking through this trail, you will see the stunning views of the Himalayas. Also, this trek is perfect if you want to experience local culture and tradition in depth. The trek starts from Pokhara, easily accessible from Kathmandu by road or air.

Upon reaching there, you will see stunning views of Dhaulagiri I, II, III, IV, and V, Gurja Peak, Annapurna South, Barah Himal, Nilgiri Himal, and others from this vantage point. Some other popular trekking destinations include the Baraha Temple, organic farming, and hand papermaking.

Besides its natural beauty, the trek to Nagi village is famous for its cultural immersion. It helps you to interact closely with several local people. Pun ethnic group of people who are residents of the place. These people have their own culture, language, and traditions. The Pun Magars' traditional Sorathi dance is another allure for hikers in the region.

This newly developed trek offers the best-of-the-beaten track. Although popular of its remoteness, this trek offers you with comfortable accommodation options. You will get different stay options from staying with local families to teahouses and community lodges. All there are built to encourage eco-tourism in the remote areas.

The Nagi Village Trek Route

After passing through Nagi, we arrive at Mohare Danda (3300 m), which offers the greatest views of the sun rising and setting. We will arrive in Tikot after a day-long journey from Mohare Danda. The viewpoint of Dhaulagiri from Tikot is breathtaking.

On Day 1, you will take a 1-hour drive from Pokhara to Nayapul and then trekking towards Purana Gau at 1700m (5610ft). The trek is relatively easy and takes about 3 hours to cover a distance of 8km (4.97 miles). On Day 2, you will continue your trek from Purana Gau to Lespar, also at an altitude of 1700m (5610ft). This part of the trek is relatively longer and takes about 5 hours to cover a distance of 10km (6.2 miles).

On Day 3, you will trek from Lespar to Nagi, situated at an altitude of 2300m (7590ft). The trek takes about 5 hours to cover a distance of 11km (6.83 miles). On Day 4, you will trek from Nagi to Moharde Danda at an altitude of 3320m (9960ft). This part of the trek is relatively steep and takes about 4 hours to cover a distance of 9km (5.5 miles).

On Day 5, you will trek from Mohare Danda to Banthanti at 2100m (6930ft). This trek takes about 5 hours to cover a distance of 10km (6.2 miles). On Day 6, you will trek for 1 hour to Ulleri. Then, take a 1 ½ hour drive back to Pokhara, which marks the end of the Nagi Village Trekking.

Overall, Nagi Village Trekking is a moderate trek suitable for beginners that offers a glimpse into the traditional lifestyle of the people living in the Annapurna region of Nepal.

Additional Trip Information

What are the Major Attractions of this Nagi Village?

If you take this journey, you will immerse yourself in cultural and natural beauty. There are multiple locations and popular places you can stop by. Throughout the trek, you will be amazed by the sights the place offers. Here are some major attractions you will pass by on the Nagi Narchyang trek.

Mountain Views

One significant aspect of this trek is the panoramic mountain views. As you trek along the trail, you will see stunning views of many snow-capped mountains, including Annapurna South, Dhaulagiri, Macchapucchre, and many more. Also, the sunrise and sunset from above these peaks are magical. Thus, the whole trek offers many opportunities for photography.

Pokhara

Pokhara is known as a gateway to this trekking trail. Serving as a starting point, you will make a day stop here. The city is famous for its tranquil Phewa Lake. Here, you can enjoy boating with the reflection of the Annapurna range in the water. You can also explore the nightlife, numerous cafes, and shops to make your stay in Pokhara memorable.

Nagi Village

This traditional Gurung and Magar village offers a deep dive into the culture and traditions. Trekking through this trail, you will engage with locals, learn their customs, and participate in daily activities. The village is accessible via a trek from Ghorepani / Poon Hill or Mohare Danda trek. Upon reaching there, we will see the stunning views of the Annapurna and Dhaulagiri Himalayan ranges.

Diverse Landscapes

The trek offers diverse terrain and landscapes. You will navigate through lush rhododendron forests, scenic rivers, waterfalls, and agricultural terraces. You will also encounter charming villages like Rikot and Bansharka. Both these places offer a picturesque rural scene. The trek also features rolling hills and valleys. Trekking through this trail, you see traditional stone houses.

Best Time to Trek Nagi Village

The best time to trek to the Nagi Village is during Pre-monsoon (Spring) and Post-monsoon (August). These seasons offer the most favorable weather conditions for trekking. In Spring, from March to May, the weather is mild, and the rhododendrons flower blooms. The clear skies provide excellent visibility of the beautiful mountain peaks. Autumn, from September to November, is another excellent time of the year. The crisp air offers the clear views of the surrounding mountains. The moderate temperature makes your trekking comfortable.

The monsoon season from June to August is not recommended for trekking. During this time, the region experiences heavy rainfall, causing landslides. Similarly, clouds cover the snow-capped mountains. Additionally, Winter, from December to February, is also not a good season to travel. The heavy snowfall makes your trail difficult, creating slippery, steep slopes. Therefore, for safe travel with stunning views of the surroundings, we suggest you trek during Autumn and Spring.

Is travel insurance mandatory for this trek?

Even though the travel insurance is not compulsory, we recommend you to get one. Travel insurance ensures a financial safety in case of unforeseen circumstances such as trip cancellation, accidents, emergencies, baggage lost, and many more.

Cancellation Policy

We understand that plans can change willy-nilly. However it is our responsibility to ensure fairness and transparency among our customers regarding our cancellation policy. So we kindly request all travelers to carefully review the cancellation and refund policy before confirming their trip.

After your trip starts, we cannot provide a refund for any voluntary withdrawal, cancellation, or early departure by the traveler. This means the full amount paid to us will not be refunded after the trip has begun. Likewise, if during the trip, any services such as accommodation, sightseeing, meals, transportation, etc. included in the itinerary/trip are not used by the customer, no refunds or reuse will be provided to whatever portion remains unused on the trip.

Also, please note that last-minute cancellations are non-refundable. You have to understand that many trip arrangements such as accommodation, transportation, permits, guides, and operational logistics are confirmed and pre-booked. Thus, cancellations made at the last minute create non-recoverable costs for the company and so do for our clients. In addition, cancellations made shortly before the departure date or after the trip has started will be considered as last-minute cancellations and will not be eligible for any refund.

Still, the company will use their discretion in setting the conditions for the refunds, therefore, few of the conditions mentioned are subject to change. The company holds every right to cancel the trips booked by the customers before it is guaranteed to run or an official agreement is signed. A trip is guaranteed to run once it has two fully paid travelers unless minimum numbers state otherwise.

Unfortunate circumstances such as unforeseen natural disaster, canceled flights, strike, industrial action, wars, riots, quarantine, government intervention, weather, the deteriorating health condition of a group member, etc. could lead to cancellation of trips. In such cases, the customer can either ask to get back the 90% of the total trip cost paid to the company (13% Government Tax will be deducted) or reuse the cost in an alternative trip with the same price, immediately, in the following season of the same year.

The company will require a written notice in case of any cancellation. Please ensure the date of the trip cancellation is the date on which the written cancellation is received by the company. If you cancel the trip anytime prior to the departure date of the actual trip, 90% of the total cost is reusable for a year or refund.

Trip Amendment

First and foremost, please note that all the amendment conditions are applied to the trips listed on this site only. Below are a few notes to take about the amendment fees in case of any changes during, while, or after the booking:

If the company receives a request on the booking amendments at least 60 days prior to the trip, a total of USD 50/person is charged to the customer. However, if the customer's request for a booking amendment in less than 60 days before the trip departure, then the charges will be as per the cancellation policy mentioned above. In case of any changes in the price of the trip during the procedure of booking and the amendments, the new cost will be applied to the trips. Please note that these changes might not be applied by the company, but can be levied upon the company by the third parties i.e. the hotels or the service providers working with the company.

Any changes, amendments, or additions in aggregation to the trips you have booked, for example, hotels, transfers, additional days, etc. will account for no additional fee.

Health Conditions

Nepal Alternative Treks places the highest priority on the safety and well-being of all travelers. We need to ensure the traveler's well-being and health condition at the time of booking. While travelers can participate without medical documentation, those with chronic illnesses or long-term medical conditions must obtain a doctor's consent before joining the trip. This is to ensure their health is not badly affected during the adventure and that they can safely enjoy the journey.

The company will not be responsible for any type of mishaps and will not bear the medical and evacuation expenses on behalf of the participant. Therefore, we request our clients to consult their doctors for a thorough checkup and vaccination before booking a trip with us. In addition, clients with specific health needs or concerns should inform the Company in advance. This allows us to provide guidance and, if required, arrange additional services to make the trip safer and more comfortable. If needed, clients may also request additional services related to the length of the trip or stay in the country of travel.

Weather and other unfavorable conditions

Clients should be well aware of the unpredictability of the weather conditions in the mountainous regions. The unfortunate weather conditions, especially in the Everest, Jomsom, and Kanchenjunga regions, can sometimes lead to unfavorable circumstances that include delay or cancellation of flights. The Company will cover the expenses of accommodations and food in the departing location until the arrangement of flights is done. However, the Company holds every right to reroute the original trip or transports which will be in favor of the situation without any addition in the cost. Please note that the company will not be responsible for any missed international flights, losses caused by Altitude Sickness, or any other unpredictable circumstances, and the participants will have to pay all the charges incurred. Nonetheless, the Company will connect and assist you to make the necessary alternative arrangements, but, the additional charge will be covered by the customers themselves.

Regardless of stating every condition and information about the trips on the website and brochures of the Company, we will not be responsible for the unforeseeable situations that may arise before or during the trips. The Company will, however, try its level best to give prior notice about it and take alternate strategies to deal with it. These booking conditions may only be waived in special circumstances, and in writing, by a letter from the Chief of the Company. Note that all the legal agreements set up and signed between the client and the Company shall be subjected to and governed by the Nepalese law.

Note: All the Terms and Conditions mentioned are prepared as per the laws of the Government of Nepal and is governed by them. Therefore, only the head of the Company gets to intervene and holds the authority to make any amendments.
